ORGANISED BY:
The International Association for Hydro-Environment Engineering and Research (IAHR), founded in 1935, is a worldwide independent organization of engineers and water specialists working in fields related to the hydro-environmental sciences and their practical application. Activities range from river and maritime hydraulics to water resources development and eco-hydraulics, through to ice engineering, hydro-informatics and continuing education and training. IAHR stimulates and promotes both research and its application and by doing so it strives to contribute to sustainable development, the optimization of world water resources management and industrial flow processes.

IAHR accomplishes its goals by a wide variety of member activities including working groups, research agenda, congresses, specialty conferences, workshops and short courses; journals, monographs and proceedings; by involvement in international programs such as UNESCO, WMO, IDNDR, GWP, ICSU and by co-operation with other water-related international organizations.

The exposed equipment must be installed under strict safety measures. Exhibitors must comply with the designated schedule to complete the assembly of their stand before the opening of the exhibition and to dismantle it at the closing of the exhibition. Exhibitors are obliged to ensure that their stands are always staffed during exhibition hours. Payments will be made according to the conditions contemplated in the prospectus or, if different, accepted in writing by the Organizer. The participation of the Exhibitors is contingent upon compliance with all rules, regulations and conditions set forth herein. Access to the exhibition is authorized upon presentation of the accreditation issued by the Organizer. Exhibitors’ badges will not be sent in advance but will be handed out at the exhibition coordinator’s counter at the beginning of the exhibition. The Organizer guarantees the daily cleaning of the corridors. Exhibitors assume responsibility for the cleaning of their stands. The distribution of any type of catering by the Exhibitors to the participants will only be permitted provided that the catering rules of the exhibition site authorize it. The Organizer is not responsible for the quality and/or quantity of the catering offered by the Exhibitor. Any exhibition or institutional activities must be limited to the stand space and must have the prior consent of the Organization. Panels and advertisements are not permitted outside the exhibition areas assigned to Exhibitors. The areas and equipment made available to Exhibitors must be returned in their original state. In case of damage or loss of supplied equipment or damage to occupied areas, the exhibitor shall be responsible for the repair and replacement. Any decoration or special installation must be presented to the Organizer for prior authorization. The Organizer will not approve stands that do not meet the accepted standards until the necessary changes have been made.

FORCE MAJEURE

In the event of a situation of force majeure, either Party may terminate this Agreement, giving fifteen (15) days’ written notice to the other Party, and without obligation to pay any compensation for this reason. In the event that the Agreement is terminated due to force majeure, the amounts already paid done prior to the termination of the contract shall be recognized as property or collection rights and must be reimbursed in favor of the party that cancels. Therefore due to the cancellation of the contract, no future payments will be made. «Force majeure» shall include natural disasters, strikes, lockouts or any other labour disputes, acts of anti-social elements, wars - whether declared or not - blockades, insurrections, revolts, epidemics, landslides, earthquakes, storms, lightning, floods, social unrest, explosions and other unforeseeable events beyond the control of either party that impede the performance of the Contract, and which cannot be overcome by the application of due diligence by either party.

Included as cases of force majeure are government decisions of the Spanish State, whether at national, regional or local level, of the institutions of the European Union or of any other international body or Organization, which prevent or hinder the execution of the Contract.
